

Berceuse

Cradle song

Edward-Alexander Mac Dowell
1860-1908

Slowly, softly - Lentement, doucement

ppp

S
Bird - ling's fly - ing to his nest, Wings are wea - ry roa - ming.
Quand le ciel se pa - re d'or, Pa - y - sa - ge sa - ge.

A
Bird - ling's fly - ing to his nest, Wings are wea - ry roa - ming.
Quand le ciel se pa - re d'or, Pa - y - sa - ge sa - ge.

T
Bird - ling's fly - ing to his nest, Wings are wea - ry roa - ming.
Quand le ciel se pa - re d'or, Pa - y - sa - ge sa - ge.

B
ppp Bird - ling's fly - ing to his nest, Wings are wea - ry roa - ming.
Quand le ciel se pa - re d'or, Pa - y - sa - ge sa - ge.

5

Boats are sai - ling home to rest, From the o - cean's moa - ning.
Le che - min au loin s'en - dort, Par - ti sans ba - ga - ge.

Boats are sai - ling home to rest, From the o - cean's moa - ning.
Le che - min au loin s'en - dort, Par - ti sans ba - ga - ge.

8

Boats are sai - ling home to rest, From the o - cean's moa - ning.
Le che - min au loin s'en - dort, Par - ti sans ba - ga - ge.

9

Boats are sai - ling home to rest, From the o - cean's moa - ning.
Le che - min au loin s'en - dort, Par - ti sans ba - ga - ge.

12

Twilight soothes the sun to sleep Far has he been co - ming,
L'om - bre dou - ce de l'é - té Cou - lant en si - len - ce,

Twilight soothes the sun to sleep Far has he been co - ming,
L'om - bre dou - ce de l'é - té Cou - lant en si - len - ce,

15

Twilight soothes the sun to sleep Far has he been co - ming,
L'om - bre dou - ce de l'é - té Cou - lant en si - len - ce,